

Week 2

This week, a functional Graph constructor was made. One of the first bugs we encountered was with creating files with extra space, parsing only worked for double-digit numbers, stoi doesn't work, but stringstream works. Functions that we thought we needed are listed in .h files. We decided not to store edges in order to make save on memory since we have 1.8 million nodes and 28.5 million edges.